FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q. What are these documents and why am I receiving them?

A. Land in which you own a mineral interest has been included in a unit operated by Range Resources. Enclosed is a Division Order issued for your execution. This Division Order sets forth the interest owned by you in the unit.

Q. What is a Division Order?

A. A Division Order does not change the terms of your lease nor diminish your mineral rights in any way. It is issued as a courtesy to inform you of the decimal interest for which you will be paid and to allow you an opportunity to provide Range with your social security/tax identification number and confirm your address.

Q. Do I need to have the Division Order notarized?

A. No. Your signature on the Division Order should be witnessed by at least one person not related, and does not need to be notarized.

Q. Why must I provide my Social Security Number?

A. This information is necessary as it is required by Federal Law that an Internal Revenue Service Form 1099 be sent to you (and the IRS) evidencing funds which were paid to you during any given calendar year. Under the Federal income tax law, you are subject to certain penalties up to 24% of the revenue as well as withholding of tax at the current Federal tax rate if you have not provided to Range your correct taxpayer identification number.
